BIOCHEMICA® ALOE BUTTER

Ancient civilizations called aloe vera the “plant of immortality.” Centuries old stone carvings portray the use of aloe to heal the skin of the Egyptian pharaohs. In the present day, we know the leaves of the aloe vera plant contain over 200 nutritional substances and an impressive number of rich vitamins. From healing burns to protecting skin from free radicals, aloe vera is loaded with benefits for the skin. In addition, studies have shown the Lignin present in aloe vera helps other ingredients, like essential oils, penetrate more deeply into the skin. Biochemica® Aloe Butter makes many of these legendary properties available to you in a butter developed exclusively for cosmetic purposes.
